Dunkiel Saunders
Terms of Use

Last Updated: February 8, 2022

These Terms of Use are intended as an agreement between anyone who accesses this website (located at https://dunkielsaunders.com/, including all associated webpages and resources) (this “Site”) and Dunkiel Saunders Elliott Raubvogel & Hand, PLLC (“Dunkiel Saunders” or “we”). We welcome you to access this Site with the understanding that you have agreed to these Terms of Use.

We reserve the right to change and update any aspect of these Terms of Use without notice. Please read these Terms of Use carefully before proceeding as they may have changed since your last visit.

No Legal Advice; No Establishment of Attorney-Client Relationship. The information and material, including any links, contained on this Site and any of our social media sites (together, the “Content”) are provided for informational and educational purposes only, and they are not intended to constitute legal advice. No one should act or refrain from acting on the basis of any Content without seeking the appropriate legal and professional counsel for your particular circumstances. Additionally, the Content may not reflect the ideas, thoughts, or opinions of one or all employees or clients of Dunkiel Saunders.

Our operation of this Site, including the provision or transmission of any Content, is not intended to and does not create a confidential or attorney-client relationship.

E-mail Policy. Sending an e-mail through this Site, and receipt of same, or communicating with us through any social media sites, does not constitute an attorney-client relationship. Information sent via e-mail is not considered confidential or privileged unless we have expressly agreed to represent you. Do not send confidential or proprietary information through e-mail because the Internet is not secure, unless you have taken the proper precautions. By sending an e-mail to us, you confirm that you have read, understand, and agree to these Terms of Use, including this E-mail Policy.

Disclaimers; No Warranties. We try to ensure the accuracy of the Content, and we hope that the Content is useful as general information or background material. We do not, however, offer any warranty that any of the Content is current, accurate, or applicable to any given situation. We cannot promise that access to the Site will be uninterrupted or entirely error free. ALL WARRANTIES, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ARE DISCLAIMED.

Limitation of Liability. To the extent permitted by law and rules of professional responsibility in the applicable jurisdiction, we will not be responsible under any circumstances for any consequential or incidental damages (including but not limited to loss of profits, loss of privacy, and loss of data) or for any other indirect, special, or punitive damages whatsoever that arise out of or that are related to the use of this Site.

Third-Party Links. The Site may provide links to other websites or resources (the “Linked Sites”). The Linked Sites are not under our control, and we are not responsible for the contents of any Linked Site, including without limitation any link contained in a Linked Site, any advertising, products, services, or other materials on or otherwise made available via such Linked Sites. We are not responsible for webcasting or any other form of transmission received from any Linked Site. We are providing these links to you only as a convenience, and the inclusion of any link does not imply endorsement by us of the Linked Site or any association with its operators.

Copyright Notice. This Site, including most of the Content, is owned by Dunkiel Saunders, and those elements of this Site whose rights have not been transferred to Dunkiel Saunders are owned by certain third parties. This Site and the Content are protected by U.S. copyright laws. All rights reserved.

You may print out individual articles or pages, unaltered from their original content, for your personal use or for non-commercial research within your organization or for informational purposes only, but such content remains the sole and exclusive property of Dunkiel Saunders and the concerned third-party owners. No form of distribution or making available to the public (whether in print or electronic form) of any of the Content is allowed without our prior written consent.

If you believe that any information found on this Site infringes your copyrighted work, please contact us at info@dunkielsaunders.com or (802) 860-1003.

Privacy Policy. Dunkiel Saunders values your privacy. Personal Information, such as full name, address, and e-mail address, may be made available to Dunkiel Saunders through your actions. Our Privacy Policy governs our collection and use of Personal Information and is available here.

Advertising. This Site is provided for informational purposes only and is not intended to be attorney advertising or an offer to represent any Site visitors under any applicable law. Dunkiel Saunders does not wish to represent anyone based upon viewing this Site in a jurisdiction where this Site fails to comply with all laws and ethical rules of that jurisdiction.

The results of any cases published on this Site are not an indication of future results and should not create such expectations.

Applicable Law and Venue. Except in respect of matters falling within the rules of a specific jurisdiction governing legal ethics and the professional conduct of attorneys, or where otherwise provided in these Terms of Use, your use of this Site will be governed by and construed in accordance with US federal law, and to the extent such law does not apply, then in accordance with the laws of the State of Vermont without regard to its conflicts of law principles, and any disputes will be decided only by the federal courts located in Vermont or in the Vermont state courts located in Chittenden County.
